

Confirmation Retreat

Lazy F Camp and Retreat Center
March 28th 7:00pm - March 30th 11:00am

The Confirmation Retreat is an excellent addition to any junior or senior high Confirmation program, as it enables youth to connect with one another, God, and the United Methodist Church. By participating in this weekend retreat, your students will have the opportunity to:

- Fellowship with other confirmands within the Pacific Northwest Conference
- Enhance their understandings of United Methodist Church principles
- Meet with local Confirmation Class members to discuss course-specific material
- Experience a variety of activity sessions, featuring creative methods of faith expression
- Learn more about God and themselves in a safe, honest environment
- Have a personal dialogue with Bishop Paup

Activities throughout the weekend:

United Methodist Race of Grace! Learn about United Methodist Church while tearing around Lazy F like a crazed person!

Small Group Sessions: Build friendships with confirmands from other United Methodist churches, in a safe, honest, and comfortable environment!

Meet the Bishop: Join in an engaging personal dialogue with Ed Paup, the Bishop of the Pacific Northwest Conference. Bishop Paup will be here to answer any questions you may have about what it means to be United Methodist and explain a bit about the structure of the United Methodist Church and our Conference.

Community Worship: Worship together in a variety of different ways. Students will then have the opportunity to create their own unique worship service to close the retreat! If you play an instrument, dance, read or write poetry, sing, create art, or do anything else that you think might be appropriate, please bring it with you!

Event Dean: Chris Clayton, Ecumenical Youth Worker in Davenport, Washington

Event Pastor: Jeff Wallace, United Methodist Church

REGISTRATION FEE: $75.00/participant, $20.00 for adult leaders for meal costs, $95.00 after March 15th!
